Final thoughts (paraphrased)

Our shared desire

Our love for this community is what we have in common. It drives us to work for a better world. It guides us to make decisions with the needs of future generations in our minds.

We share many of the same desired outcomes. We recognize that while disagreements are natural, they do not need to impede us from making decisions together or taking action.

Even though everything may not be within our control, we share a commitment to act and make decisions towards our shared desired outcomes.

The background of the slide is a photograph of a serene lake scene. In the foreground, the calm water reflects the sky and the surrounding greenery. In the middle ground, a long, low building with a dark roof and several windows sits on a grassy bank. To the right of the building, a rocky shoreline is visible. In the background, a dense forest of tall evergreen trees rises against a blue sky with scattered white clouds. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and natural.

Discussion

Do the actions help us get to the desired outcomes?

Do the actions help us address the key issues?

Is Council ready to engage the community on this working action list?

The background of the slide is a scenic photograph of a calm lake. In the foreground, several kayakers are visible on the water, some in yellow kayaks. The shoreline is lined with a dense forest of tall evergreen trees. In the distance, some residential buildings are visible through the trees. The sky is blue with scattered white clouds. A semi-transparent white rectangle is overlaid on the center of the image, containing the text.
